

Welcome to Fuefuki City

just 30 minutes from Mt.Fuji

Main transportation to Fuefuki City

- By car
 - New Tokyo International Airport (Narita) → Tokyo (1 hour and 30 minutes)
 - Tokyo → Fuefuki (2 hours)
 - Nagoya → Fuefuki (3 hours)
 - Osaka → Fuefuki (5 hours)
- By Japan Rail Road
 - Tokyo → Fuefuki (1 hour and 40 minutes)
 - Nagoya → Fuefuki (3 hour and 30 minutes)
 - Osaka → Fuefuki (5 hours)

Contact Information

- Fuefuki Tourism Center
 777 Ichibe, Fuefuki City, Yamanashi, Japan
 TEL +8155-261-2829
 URL <https://www.peach-city.com>

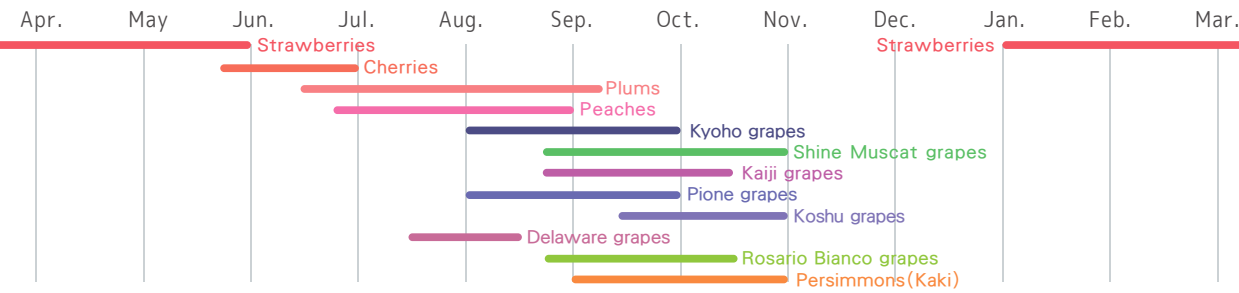

Why visit Fuefuki City, Yamanashi?

Peach blossoms from the beginning of April to mid-April

A well-known tourist spot, Fuefuki City is situated in the eastern part of the Kofu Basin and is approximately 100 kms from Tokyo. It is one of the leading areas in Japan for fruit farms. Fertile soil, pristine water, long daylight hours and a big difference in temperature between day and night, make it an ideal place for farming. It has the largest cultivated area, crop yield and shipment of grapes and peaches in Japan. Moreover, there are many wineries, tourism farms and other local industries to add to its attraction.

Fruit Calendar

Spring

A carpet of peach blossoms against a backdrop of natural beauty

Peach blossoms
From the beginning of April to mid April

Peach picking
From the beginning of July to end of August

Ashigawa Lily of the Valley Festival late May

Cherry blossoms
From late March to the beginning of April

Shindo Pass

Ukai(cormorant) fishing, Fuefuki River

Held on Wednesdays, Thursdays, Saturdays and Sundays from 8:00pm - 8:50pm between July 20th - August 19th

Cormorant fishing masters walk in the river to catch fish. This rare form of Ukai (cormorant) fishing, called "Kachiu" has a history of more than 800 years. Tourists can also experience being a cormorant master.

Summer

Home of Peaches and Grape

Isawa Onsen Ukai(cormorant) fireworks

Held on Wednesdays, Thursdays, Saturdays and Sundays from 8:50pm - 9:00pm between July 20th - August 19th

After the Ukai(cormorant) Fishing display you can enjoy fireworks. The popular Isawa Onsen fireworks are held on August 21st every year. This is the final display of fireworks in Yamanashi.

In spring the whole of Fuefuki City is covered in a pink carpet of peach blossoms and their sweet fragrance hangs in the air.

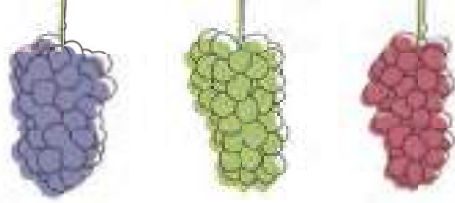

Cherry blossoms can also be enjoyed throughout the city.

In some areas, cherry blossoms are lit up at night. You can take a stroll down the wooden deck on Sakura Onsen Dori to enjoy the blossoms both during the day and at night.

This area is known as "the Kingdom of Fruit" with the largest production of peaches and grapes in Japan. The countryside is dotted with fruit farms, wineries and farms open to tourists.

You can sample delicious, fresh fruit at one of the many farms that offer peach or grape picking.

This is the season to also enjoy the fantastic spectacle of traditional Ukai fishing on the Fuefuki River, followed by fireworks

Autumn

Wine and History in Fuefuki City

Grape picking
From the beginning of August to end of October

Wine

Autumn colors along Ashigawa River
From the beginning of November to mid November

Kawanakajima Battle
The end of October

The battle between the two armies of the famous warlords Takeda Shingen and Uesugi Kenshin is said to have taken place 5 times. This is a reenactment of one part of the battle

Strawberry picking
From the beginning of January to late May

Isawa and Kasugai Onsens Area

Sakura Onsen Dori is illuminated
From December 1st to February 28th

The hot springs (Onsen) in Isawa and Kasugai are renowned for their beauty enhancing qualities. There are also many inns and hotels in the area that are ready to welcome you throughout the year.

Hoto Noodles: a local dish that will surely warm you up in Japan's cold winter. (Hoto consists of thick, flat noodles and vegetables in a rich, miso soup.)

In the clear winter air, you can enjoy gorgeous city lights and fantastic mountain scenery from Fuefuki City

Winter

Hot springs, delicious food, stunning scenery!

Many wineries can be found in this area and November is the time to sample Fuefuki's Nouveau Wine. At the wine server in Fuefuki Onsen Station you can try many of the locally produced wines.

Battle cries ring out! In October, a reenactment of the battle between the strong opposing armies of Takeda Shingen and Uesugi Kenshin is held. This is the battle of Kawanakajima and you will see many people dressed up as samurai warriors.

Experience tourism throughout the seasons in Fuefuki City

No matter what the season there is always something to do in Fuefuki City. From the peach blossom festival and the lily of the valley festival in spring, the display of Ukai fishing on the Fuefuki river and the Isawa Onsen fireworks in summer to the exciting reenactment of the Battle of Kawanakajima in Autumn.

Fruit picking can be enjoyed year round and you can savor fruit grown only in Fuefuki City.

Fuefuki City has a lot to offer whether it be nature, culture or history and we are looking forward to welcoming you.